

PCA

2022

“Revitalization”
Sept 30th & Oct 1st

2022 Graduate and Undergraduate Writing Competition

Purpose

The purpose of this competition is to encourage and give recognition to graduate and undergraduate-level scholarship in the discipline of Communication and to offer students the opportunity to present their work at the annual Pennsylvania Communication Association (PCA) hosted by East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania, September 30 - October 1, 2022

Participation

Submitters must be enrolled in a graduate or an undergraduate Communication program at any Pennsylvania college or university. First and Second place cash prizes will be awarded for both categories, undergraduate and graduate, and the conference fee will be waived. Awardees will present their papers in a special session at the Conference. Non-winners may still be considered for presentation in other areas of the Conference.

Guidelines for Submission

Papers submitted to this competition should fall within any area of Communication study recognized by the PCA or National Communication Association. Papers should be typed, double-spaced, and 8 to 20 pages in length. Please paginate. Submit to the Google form: <https://forms.gle/qCFjBZFCn6ASYBmW7>

Be certain that the author's name does not appear on any page of the paper including in the header or footer.

DEADLINE: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 2022

Questions, please contact: Dr. Jen Jones, Associate Professor and Department Coordinator, Marketing and Communications, Seton Hill University:
jjones@setonhill.edu

Awards

First Place - $100.00 Second Place - $50.00 *Expenses Paid

*The Conference registration fee will be waived for the winners. Transportation, housing, and other meal expenses are the responsibility of the participant. Awardees are required to become members of the PCA, <https://pcasite.org/index.php/membership/membership-options/>